if their eyes twitch or spasm when they look to the far right or left (a phenomenon known as nystagmus), the person may be intoxicated. This is a very subjective test.